

SCHOOL PAY POLICIES CHECKLIST

PURPOSE OF THE CHECKLIST

The NASUWT believes that a fair, transparent and consistent pay policy, which recognises and rewards teachers as highly skilled professionals, is a key element in effective school improvement.

School pay policies which accord with the provisions in this checklist will help to recruit, retain and motivate teachers, provide the basis for sound financial and personnel planning and minimise the risk of grievance and discrimination.

The checklist sets out the minimum requirements for an effective pay policy and is consistent with the statutory provisions for teachers' pay effective from 1 September 2018.

The publication of the NASUWT checklist does not represent an acceptance of changes to the teachers' pay system introduced or proposed by the Department for Education.

The NASUWT is committed to securing a national pay structure in England and Wales which applies statutorily to all maintained schools and academies.

Appeals procedures

- Teachers have the right to make representations and to appeal about any aspect of their pay or pay progression in accordance with an appeals procedure within the policy which meets, as a minimum, the statutory requirements on disputes resolution.

Monitoring and review of the policy

- (b) requires the exercise of a teacher's professional skills and judgement;
- (c) requires the teacher to lead, manage and develop a subject or curriculum area, or to lead and manage pupil development across the curriculum;

- (e) involves leading, developing and enhancing the teaching practice of other staff.

In addition, before awarding a TLR1, the school must be satisfied that the significant responsibility referred to above includes line management responsibility for a significant number of people.
