

Pay Award Update

The Local Government Association (LGA) has issued its circular for 2018/19 regarding the pay award for teachers working in residential establishments.

The NASUWT did not agree the circular as it failed to meet the Union's minimum expectations for the 2018/19 teachers' pay award.

The NASUWT is continuing to press for:

- a minimum 3.5% award paid to all teachers on the unqualified and main pay ranges;
- a minimum 2% award paid to all teachers on the upper pay range and leading practitioner pay range;
- a minimum 1.5% award paid to all teachers on the leadership group and headteacher group pay ranges; and
- a minimum 2% award on all allowances.

Disappointingly, the LGA has decided to award only 2% to the minima and maxima of the main pay range and just 1% to teachers on all other pay ranges. This is below the NASUWT's minimum expectations.

The NASUWT is the only union that has not accepted the employer's offer.

Where NASUWT members in residential establishments are informed incorrectly that the NASUWT has agreed to accept the pay award for 2018/19, they should notify the NASUWT immediately.
