

UPDATE ON PAY

On 4 February, as previously advised to members, the NASUWT representatives met with representatives of the States Employment Board (SEB) to discuss the ongoing pay dispute.

The meeting was positive and some progress was made. However, this was not sufficient for the Union to reach agreement with the SEB.

A further meeting, which is likely to be the final one, has been arranged for 11 February. After this meeting the NASUWT will review the position. If there is no significant progress then members will need to be ready to receive information on the next steps, including industrial action.

The ball is now firmly in the court of the SEB. What happens next is down to them.

Thank you for your continuing support.
